One of our biggest assets is the notoriety we have as being “the community ballet” for Bay Area Houston. The company frequently performs pro bono at various local events. These ventures are done to demonstrate the company’s support and interest in collaborative projects and interactive experiences that are mutually beneficial for both the organizations and, particularly, the entire Bay Area!

A Note From Our Executive Director

Forty-five years ago Lynette Mason Gregg began this artistic endeavor with love, insight, and a vision. Countless others worked tirelessly over the years to form this organization into what it has become.

Today, we take such pride in being a destination for artists and audiences seeking a highly unique and evolutionary performance experience. All this could not be possible without the tremendous support from our partners and a community that values the importance of the arts. We thank you!

BAHBT's greatest strength continues to be our professional staff. Our Artistic Director Nelson Madrigal is world-renowned and his training and creativity make BAHBT what it is today. Along with Mr. Madrigal, Natalie Zundel, Lorena Feijoo, and our professional dancers, the level of training and professionalism for BAHBT continues to flourish.

This year's success could not be possible without the work of our wonderful Board of Directors and Advisory Council. Their commitment to the arts and the passion to take it to the next level shows in all the time and effort they put into every task. The board worked to rebrand the organization, created new partnerships, and are launched our five year plan to grow our company. The Leadership Team and army of volunteers are the backbone of our success and help make the magic possible. We thank you for your time, dedication, and leadership!

This upcoming year will be one of our greatest challenges. We are determined that "the show must go on" and we promise to deliver. Let's continue to work together to keep offering world-class art here in our area. On behalf of the Bay Area Houston Ballet & Theatre, thank you for your attention and your continued support! Join us in imagining what our future will bring...

Sincerely,

Jill Reason
